Sisters of Mercy

Foreword

Knowledge does not comprise all which is contained in the large term of education. The feelings are to be disciplined; the passions are to be restrained; true and worthy motives are to be inspired; a profound religious feeling is to be instilled, and pure morality inculcated under all circumstances. All this is comprised in education.

— Daniel Webster

A new Administrative Center for the Sisters of Mercy of North Carolina, and Faculty House for the teaching staff of Sacred Heart Junior College and Academy in Belmont, North Carolina, will be completed in the fall of 1962.

The Sister of Mercy, through her dedicated life of prayer, study and Apostolic work, gives to others the love and compassion of Christ.

Sister of Mercy

Dedication

We wish to dedicate
Our yearbook,
With sincere appreciation,
To those who
Have given to us
Instruction through their wisdom,
Guidance through their understanding,
Inspiration through their dedication;
Our faculty.

*This photo of typical Sister of Mercy won a prize for Mr. Tim Hord who took the picture. We are using it as a representative Sister.

"She's not lazy; she's just conserving her energy."

"I wonder if I might suddenly see a shining knight."

"A good heart is better than all the heads in the world."

"Beware, I may get to be famous."

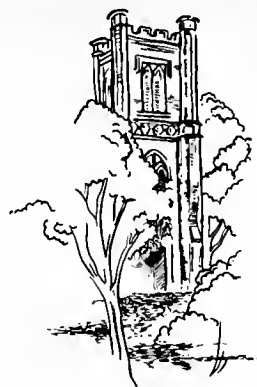

"When it was to be done, she did it."

"Always laughing, never sad, sometimes naughty, never bad."

"Sensibility is the power of a women."

"It's nice to be natural when you are naturally nice."

"She hath a natural and wise serenity."

"I know she is here because I heard her laugh."

"She came; she saw; she conquered."

"Men may come and men may go; But not if I can help it."

"A friendly girl with a heart most gay."

"Interest in many things; capable of all."

"It's not the questions that bother me, it's the answers."

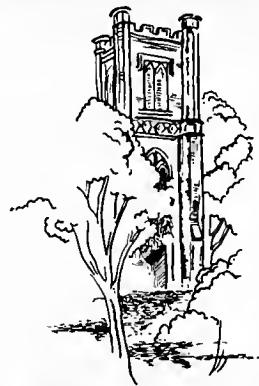

"A smile for all, a greeting glad, a lovable jolly way she had."

"When you shorten the figure, you heighten the charm."

"A light heart lives long."

"A gentle dignity in voice and manner."

"No one has to speak for me; I speak for myself."

"Worry little, study less — my ideas of happiness."

"A jolly unselfish personality is the greatest gift of all."

"And watch her feet, see how they dance, Twinkle Toes."

"Women of few words are best."

"We build the ladder by which we rise."

"Large was her bounty, her soul was sincere."

"From little spark may burst a mighty flame."

"Teach us what sweet thoughts are thine."

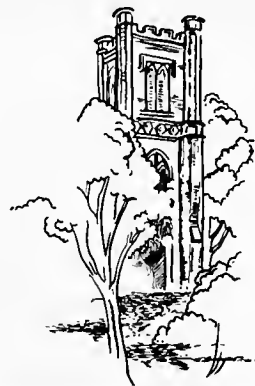

"She is as good as goodness is."

"She loves life and lives it well."

"Smart, capable, and always kind; in fact she just can't be defined."

"Others may grow great by your good example."

"If I could not go to heaven with a party, I would not go there at all."

"The thing I'm seeking, I know I will find."

"Be friendly, and you will never want friends."

"Mighty art thou, because of the peaceful calm of thy presence."

"She is ever ready for a good time."

"A true heart with good will and pleasant ways."

"Quietly she goes on way."

"The way to be happy is to make other people happy."

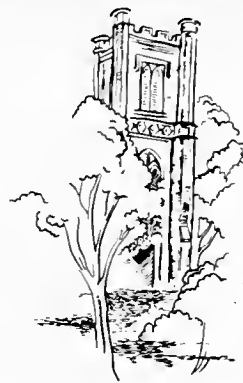

"And she works at it 'til she knows she can do it for certain."

"She is the sweetest kind of a girl; a friend to all."

"A witty woman is a treasure."

"As pure in thought as angles are."

"Live the life you like, or like the life you live."

"Fine Arts is presenting the program."

The year was brought to a close with the performance of Sunny Sangster.

Duo-pianists of international fame, Norma Flender and Dorothy Griffith played a delightful concert.

His name is Jerry Thomas —an enjoyable evening of singing.

Guy Carawan, outstanding folk singer delighted us with his interpretation of Songs of many lands.

Those evening concert trips . . . some of the concerts attended were:

- Rise Stevens
- Columbus Boys Choir
- The Teltschiks
- The Baltimore Symphony
- List and Glenn

A CHAMPION FROM THE START

We pay tribute ...

Mr. Ted Crunkleton

To a man who has served in two capacities at S.H.A. — teacher and coach. A man who as a teacher leaves a memorable impression of his guidance and instruction. As coach, he has taught us that sportsmanship and honor come before victory. This year marks his fifth year at Sacred Heart Academy whose progress he has done so much to insure.

CHOOSE SOMETHING LIKE A STAR

“O Star (the fairest one in sight),
We grant your loftiness the right
To some obscurity of cloud —

But to be wholly taciturn
In your reserve is not allowed
Say something to us we can learn
By heart and when alone repeat.

And steadfast as Keat’s Eremite,
Not even stooping from its sphere,
It asks a little of us here.
It asks of us a certain height,
So when at times the mob is swayed
To carry praise or blame too far,
We may choose something like a star
To stay our minds on . . .”

Such is our Faith
